Net 316

The argument is the same as of the net 12
The faces are symmetric with respect to the equator containing the edge 67 and 13 must be longer than π because it must contain the points of maximum and minimum latitude in its equator.
We find a contradiction for the long edge lemma.