Explanation 198

The following is a subset

Note that the vertices 3, 0, and 5 are all in the same equator & which is the bisectrix of the angles in 3, 0, and 5.

So the arc from 3 to A in the picture is longer than 3 × the height of the equilateral triangle. The latter is however more than 2π