Explanation 3128

The vertices 1, 6, 5 and O are all on the same equator.
The triangle 465 is then half of a square and 65 is as long as the side l of a triangle. The segments OB and A1 are as long as the height H of the same triangle.
But $2H + l = 2\pi$